

Petja Plaustajner is an Attorney at Law at Law Office Plaustajner from Ljubljana. After she obtained her law degree (diploma, “cum laude”) in 2002 at the Faculty of Law of the University of Ljubljana, she started working as a trainee in the Law Office Plaustajner, run by assistant professor Dr.sc. Mag. sc. Konrad Plauštajner. Law Office Plaustajner has a long tradition, specializing in commercial and civil law, as well as international law, in particular international commercial arbitration. Law Office Plaustajner is also well known as counsel on FIDIC Contracts.

Petja passed the bar exam in 2005 and became an attorney in 2007. In her practice she gained experience in civil law by representing the clients before the courts. She also holds experience in representing the clients before the administrative authorities. As an attorney she consults clients on investment projects undertaken under FIDIC Contracts. She has successfully represented clients in international commercial arbitration before AAA arbitration, ICC Paris, VIAC and LAC. Petja has successfully completed three FIDIC online training modules: Module 1 (in 2020) – FIDIC online Training course on 1999 Red and Yellow Books with Highlights of the 2017 Second Editions, Module 2 (in 2019) – Claims and Disputes Resolution under FIDIC + Highlights of the main changes introduced by the 2017 Update of the Red & Yellow Books and Module 5 (in 2020) – Conditions of contract for EPC / Turnkey Projects.

Petja is also an active member of the Slovenian Bar Association. Being a member of the delegation to the CCBE, Petja has been representing the Slovenian Bar Association for six years. In the period of 2015 - 2021 she has been a member of the Board of Lawyers of the Slovenian Bar Association.

She is active also academically and has given lectures at the Faculty of Management (University of Primorska), Faculty of Law (University of Maribor) and other various seminars with focus on international commercial arbitration, ADR and FIDIC Contracts. She regularly gives lectures at the Official Gazette of the Republic of Slovenia, which organizes a seminar for obtaining a National Professional Qualification “Expert on FIDIC Contracts”.

Ljubljana, December 2021