

Guidelines for contributors – Slovenska arbitražna praksa

Slovenska arbitražna praksa (Slovenian arbitration practice) is a specialized journal dealing with all aspects of arbitration. It is intended for counsels, in-house lawyers, arbitrators, judges and all those interested in arbitration through their work or studies.

What do we publish?

We publish articles in Slovenian, English, German, French, Croatian and Serbian, which have not yet been published or sent for publication to another journal. The author is responsible for any breach of copyright. If the article has been published before, sent for publication to another journal or presented at a conference the author has to notify the editor about this fact and the reasons for a new publication. Further, in such cases the author has to present an agreement of the original publisher for the new publication.

Article length

Submitted articles should contain between 15.000 and 30.000 characters (including spaces). Deviations may be considered in exceptional cases.

Abstract

All articles should be submitted together with a short abstract of maximum 1.200 characters (including spaces). The abstract should briefly define the topic of the article and sum up the results and findings. The abstract should not contain general findings

Short presentation of the author

The authors should submit a brief presentation of their professional and academic references. This presentation should not exceed 600 characters (including spaces). When the article is submitted in co-authorship, a presentation of each author is to be submitted.

Review

The submitted articles are reviewed anonymously. The comments and remarks of the reviewer are to be included in the article by the author.
